

Dr. Seuss meets Sesame Street in this mischievous series about the weird and wonderful students at a very strange school!

Ages: 5+ Price: $6.99

SAVE by purchasing the Complete Collection!

Welcome to the School of Monsters: the funniest, silliest and most accessible series for first readers! Start by reading only the last word on every line and work your way up to reading the whole story. With tumbling rhymes and an infectious sense of humor, School of Monsters is guaranteed to spark a love of reading!

Bestselling author Sally Rippin (Billie B. Brown, Hey Jack!) has perfectly crafted this new series for first-time readers with simple vocabulary and large, accessible text design.

SAVE $20

Complete Collection
(all 17 titles)

$64⁹⁹

A $84.83 Value

First Chapter Book

Ages 4-7

Paperback | 48 pp

$4.99 each

- No more than 50 words per page.
- Word art or illustration on every second page.
- Realistic situations; positive problem-solving.
- Jack's enormous imagination injects the series with fun and humor.
- Warm family and friend relationships.
- 17 Hey Jack titles now available, plus a special Billie B. and Jack joint adventure, The Book Buddies (KM 2020)

SAVE $20

Complete Collection
(all 20 titles)

$79⁹⁹

A $99.80 Value

First Chapter Book

Ages 4-7

Paperback | 48 pp

$4.99 each

- No more than 50 words per page.
- Word art or illustration on every second page.
- Realistic situations; positive problem-solving.
- Feisty, irresistible heroine.
- Warm family and friend relationships.
- Twenty Billie B. Brown titles now available, plus a special Billie B. and Jack joint adventure, The Book Buddies (KM 2020)

Ages: 6+ Price: $4.99 each

SAVE by purchasing the Complete Collection!

Series: Billy and the Mini Monsters

Billy is an ordinary boy until one night he finds five mini monsters living in his sock drawer. From the moment he discovers Gloop, Peep, Fang-Face, Captain Snott, and Trumpet, Billy's life will never be the same again...

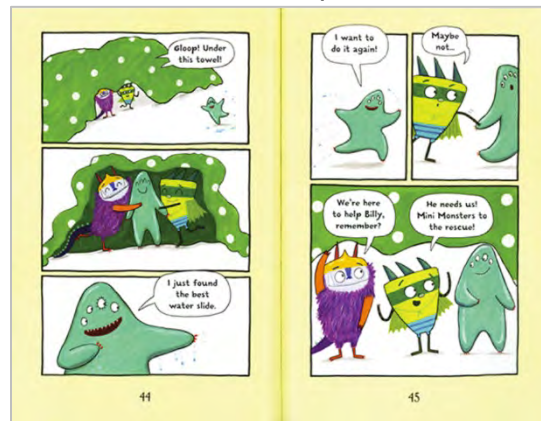

Billy and the Mini Monsters by Zanna Davidson – and illustrated by Melanie Williamson – is the perfect series for reluctant and newly independent readers growing in confidence.

Join Billy and the hairy, smelly, but not-so-scary Mini Monsters in these hilarious adventures as they encounter crucial first experiences (vacations, school trips and moving house) and everyday fears (fear of the dark and bullying at school).

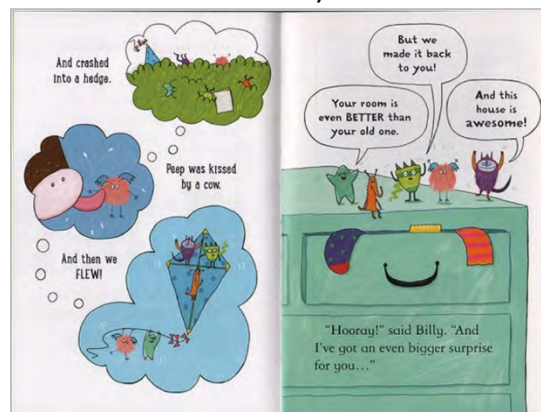

Monsters to the Rescue by Zanna Davidson

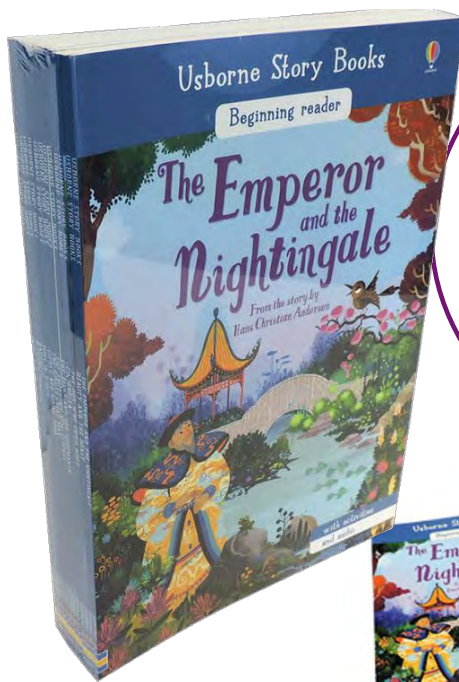

Monsters Go Camping by Zanna Davidson

Monsters on the Move by Zanna Davidson

BEST BUY

12 Titles
for Only
$44⁹⁹

Usborne Story Books (P)
Beginner Readers

Ages 6+

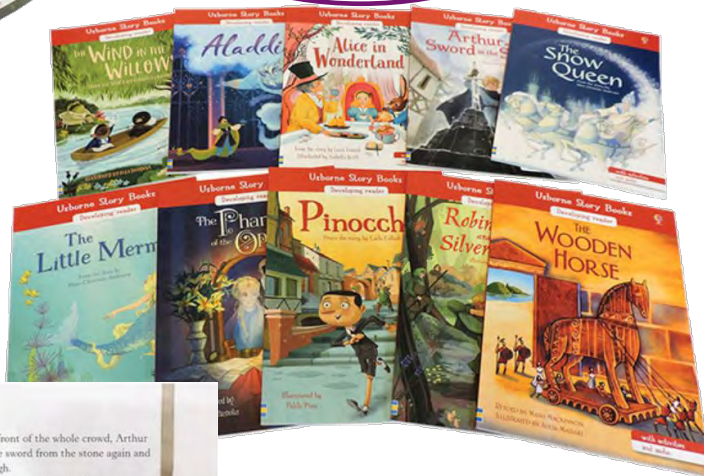

USBORNE
BOOKS & MORE
Independent Consultant

BEST BUY

10 Titles
for Only
$44⁹⁹

Usborne Story Books (P)
Developing Readers
Ages 6+

 USBORNE
BOOKS & MORE
Independent Consultant

BEST BUY

10 Titles
for Only
$44⁹⁹

Usborne Story Books (P)
Confident Readers

Ages 6+

USBORNE
BOOKS & MORE
Independent Consultant

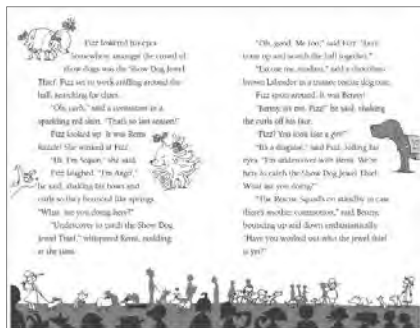

Features

- Hilarious and action-packed chapter books for beginners.
- Black-and-white illustrations throughout.
- Funny and endearing characters.
- Not just for dog lovers!

Ages: 7-10 Price: $5.99

Follow Fizz through his police dog academy tryouts and training to become a dog detective, and on to his first cases.

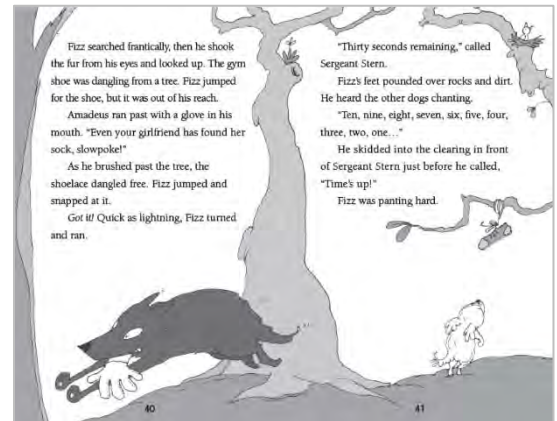

Told in simple but very lively language, with lots of playful repetition, short chapters and Stephen Michael King's quirky cartoon-style illustrations throughout, this hilarious and action-packed series is perfect for newly confident readers.

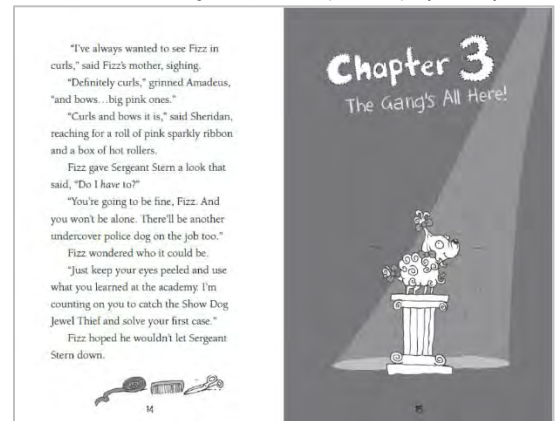

Fizz and the Police Dog Tryouts (Book 1) by Lesley Gibbes

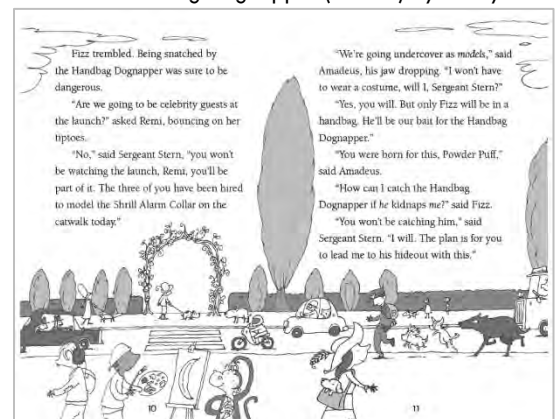

Fizz and the Dog Academy Rescue (Book 2) by Lesley Gibbes

Fizz and the Show Dog Jewel Thief (Book 3) by Lesley Gibbes

Fizz and the Handbag Dognapper (Book 4) by Lesley Gibbes

Features

- Espouses good sports values: self-belief, commitment, teamwork, perseverance, dealing w/disappointments, life balance, as well as fun!
- Showcases pride in Aboriginal, Torres Strait Islander heritage
- Several nationalities featured

Ages: 7-10 Price: $5.99

A fantastic and fun basketball three-book series by Australian Olympian and NBA star Patty Mills to entertain young readers, inspire kids to achieve their goals through sports, and take pride in their heritage. Based on Patty's indigenous heritage and experience playing sports as a kid growing up in Canberra.
(Glossaries included!)

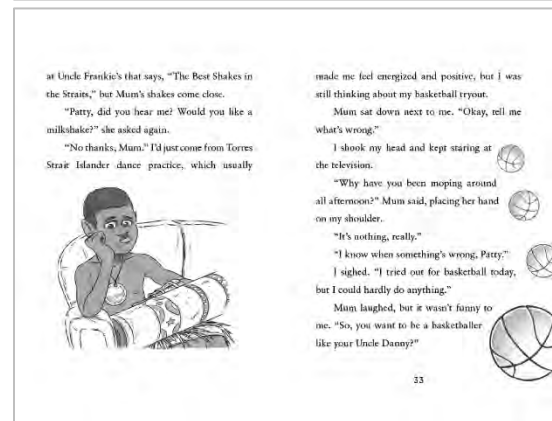

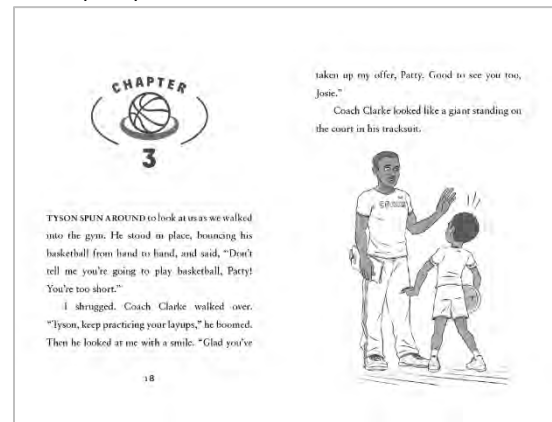

Sports series review by 5.5 year old! (web review)

It was fun to read because there was basketball games to follow along. It was an intermediate chapter book with a nice amount of words. I love series books so it was fun to continue with the other books. It was interactive because it taught me how to do a layup and I love sports.

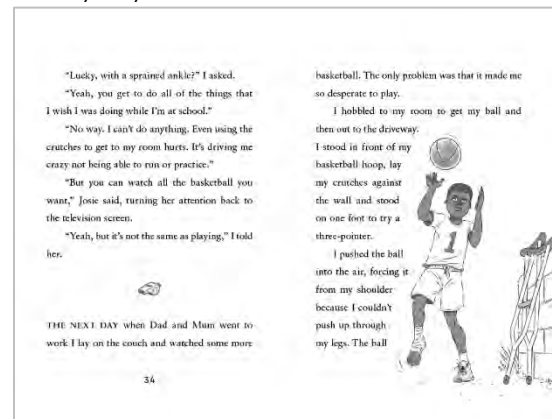

My 9 year old LOVES this series! (web review)

Even though he's not really a "sports kid" himself, my son loves these books! He's really hoping for more. And I love the themes of hard work and determination that are valued and taught in this series! These are perfect!

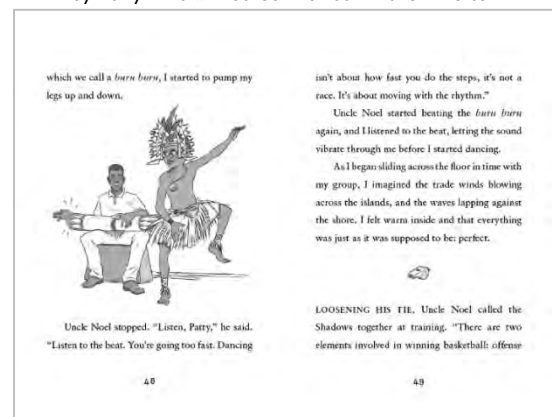

Game Day: Patty Hits the Court! by Patty Mills with Jared Thomas – Nahum Ziersch

Game Day: Patty Takes Charge by Patty Mills with Jared Thomas – Nahum Ziersch

Game Day: Patty and the Shadows by Patty Mills with Jared Thomas – Nahum Ziersch

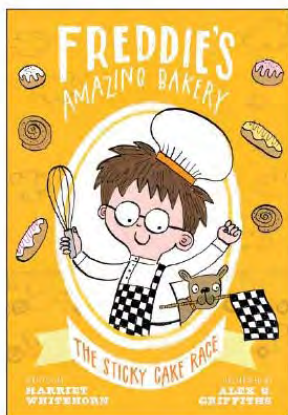

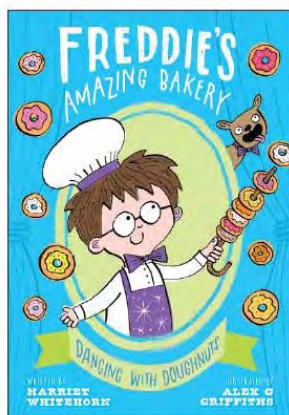

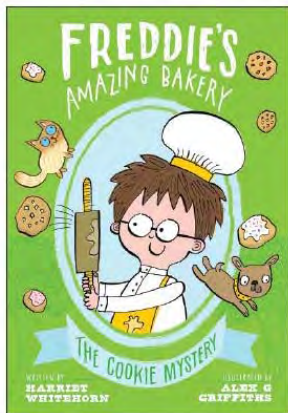

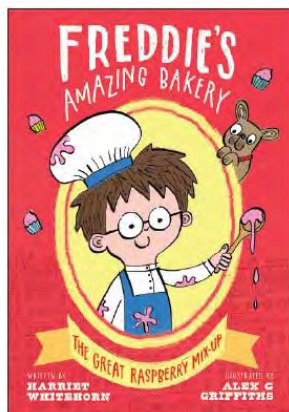

Features

- Equally appealing to both boys and girls.
- Emphasis on community spirit, kindness, good sportsmanship.
- Recipes included encourage shared child/adult activity.
- Glossaries of baking terms.
- B&W illustrations throughout.
- Success from trying your best – no superpowers required.

Ages: 6+

Price: $5.99

SAVE $ on Complete Collection – only $19.99

Benefits to children from shared child/adult baking activities:

- Increase language development and reading skills
- Enhance fine motor skills
- Increase problem-solving and math skills
- Introduce children to scientific concepts
- Increase focus and attention
- Teach life skills like independence and responsibility
- Boost self-confidence
- Encourage child/adult/family bonding

GIFT IDEA: Pair with apron, simple baking equipment, or cookbook.

Features

- Strongly supports a good work ethic, the value of cooperation, and a concern for others.
- Realistically shows the ins and outs of hotel management.
- Great read-aloud for a broad-age range audience.

Ages: 6-9 Price: $5.99

SAVE $ on Complete Collection – only $19.99

When Anna inherits a dilapidated once-grand hotel, she's determined to restore it to its former glory. But this is no ordinary hotel – all of her staff and guests are animals! And running an animal hotel is no easy task.

School Library Journal

Sure to delight young readers transitioning to chapter books...

Log Cabin Library

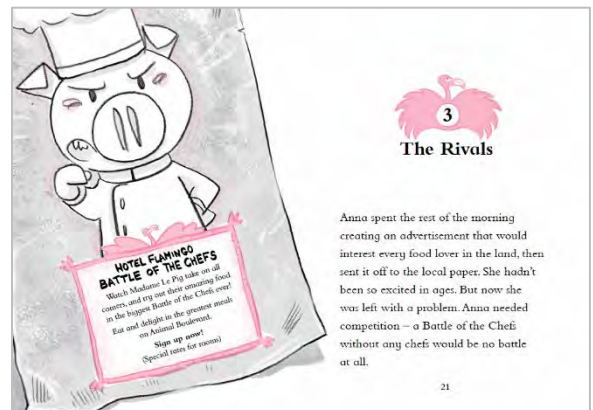

This would be a fun series for summer reading and especially for someone who enjoys animal stories.

Two color illustrations add vibrancy.

Hotel Flamingo: Holiday Heat Wave by Alex Milway

Hotel Flamingo: Fabulous Feast by Alex Milway

Features

- Hilarious doodles, drawings, poems, pros-and-cons list
- Spirited main character
- Made especially for fans of friendship and fun!

Ages: 6-9 Price: $5.99

*I have so many super-amazing and IMPORTANT things to write about!
I'll tell you all about them.
I'm Olivia and this is MY diary...*

From the creators of the bestselling Ella Diaries:

Ella's little sister has started writing down her own hilarious thoughts and adventures!

It's time to find out all about Olivia.
She's funny, fearless, and full of fun.

Perfect for Starting Chapter Books!

My daughter loves this book and the series. She was getting overwhelmed by wordy chapter books so she loves how this series is written in diary form. Doodle illustrations break up the pages too. She can focus and really be engaged in the book. She said she thinks Olivia is someone she would be friends with.
(web review)

Love the imagination Olivia has!

My first grader was super engaged in this book. There are sibling elements that are humorous and very realistic. Olivia has a great imagination and is always using her imagination and problem solving skills - an awesome example for my daughter!
(web review)

Olivia's Secret Scribbles: My New Best Friend by Meredith Costain – Danielle McDonald

Olivia's Secret Scribbles: My (almost) Perfect Puppy by Meredith Costain – Danielle McDonald

Features

- Humorously explores common elementary school issues
- Hilarious doodles, drawings, poems, pros-and-cons list
- Spirited main character

Ages: 8-12 Price: $5.99

WARNING:

You are about to read my UTTERLY BIGGEST SECRETS. Can I trust you? OK then. I'm Ella, and this is my diary...

School Library Journal

"The illustrations and the use of lists and poetry make this a great pick for reluctant readers."

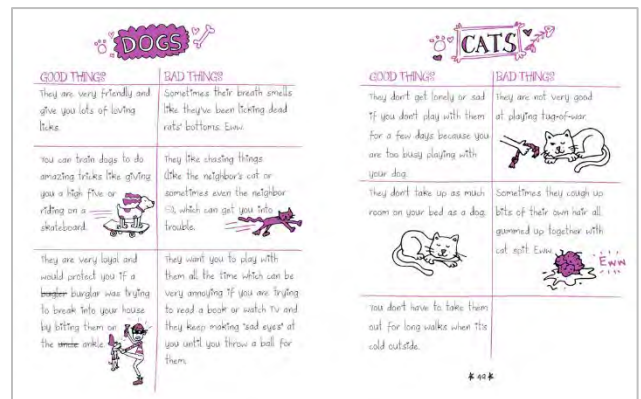

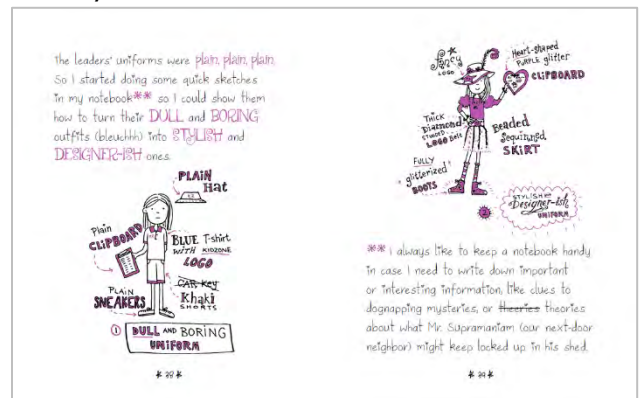

Kirkus Reviews

"Following the story, backmatter activities tie into the tale, including a make-your-own haiku, draw-your-own fashion, and a prompt for a top-10 list. Among a slew of other bubblegum-hued diary hybrids, this mean-girl tale is a gentle take, just right for a younger audience hankering for a fast, frothy read. ... Cute and effervescent."

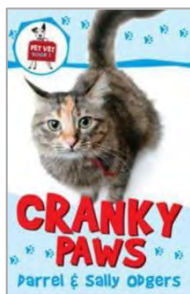

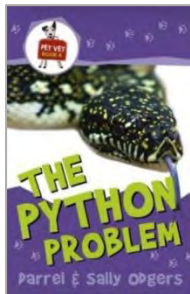

Ella Diaries: Double Dare You by Meredith Costain – Danielle McDonald

Ella Diaries: Double Dare You by Meredith Costain – Danielle McDonald

SAVE $10

Get 6 Books in Collection
for Only

$19⁹⁹

$29.94 Value

Pet Vet Complete Collection

 USBORNE
BOOKS & MORE
Independent Consultant

Trump, a Jack Russell terrier, lives with veterinarian Dr. Jeanie, and helps the animals being treated at the pet vet clinic.

- Short sentences, manageable chapters for younger readers.
- Engaging characters appeal to animal lovers.
- Fact-filled notes about animal behaviour and caring for pets.
- Perfect for learning about what being a veterinarian would entail.

Only $3.34 a book!

Sticker Dollies Stories

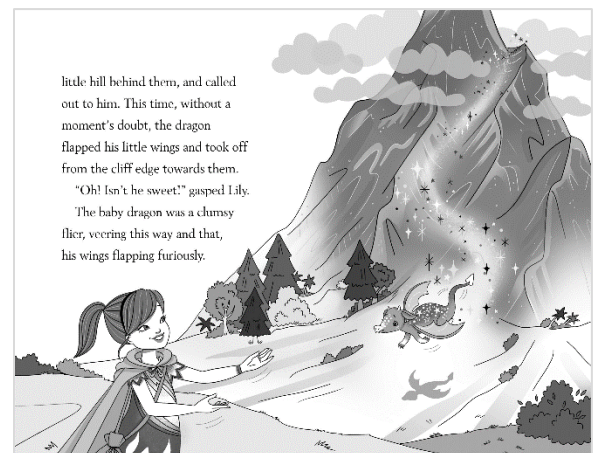

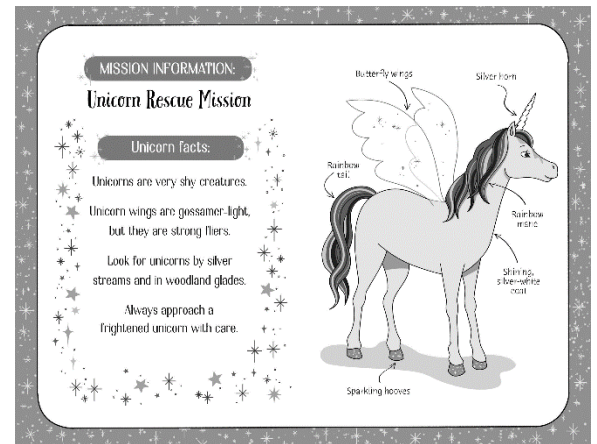

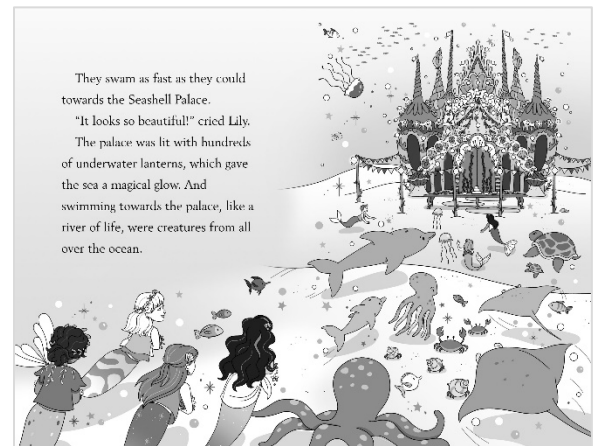

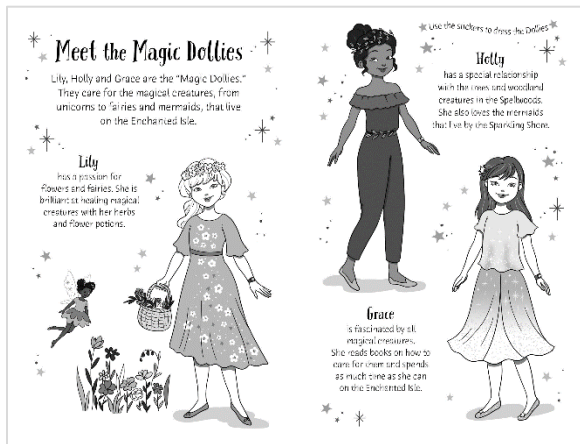

Chapter books featuring characters from the best-selling Sticker Dolly dressing series.

Ages: 6+ Price: $5.99

SAVE $ on Complete Collection – only $42.99

In their mystical land, the Dollies are on a mission in each book to solve a mystery or coming to the rescue. Sticker outfits are included to “dress” the dollies on one character page.

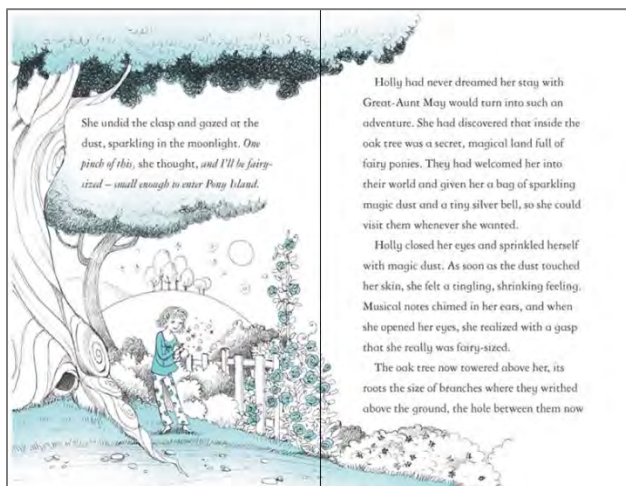

Fairy Ponies Series

Ages: 7+ Price: $5.99 each

SAVE $ on Complete Collection – only $24.99

Fairy Ponies is an original, illustrated fiction with easy reading texts. Designed for newly fluent readers who are ready for longer stories. Developed in consultation with reading experts.

Holly is staying with her great-aunt when she discovers a tiny pony with shimmering wings. At first she thinks she must be dreaming, until two fairy ponies visit her with an urgent mission. Puck, a young fairy pony, is in danger!

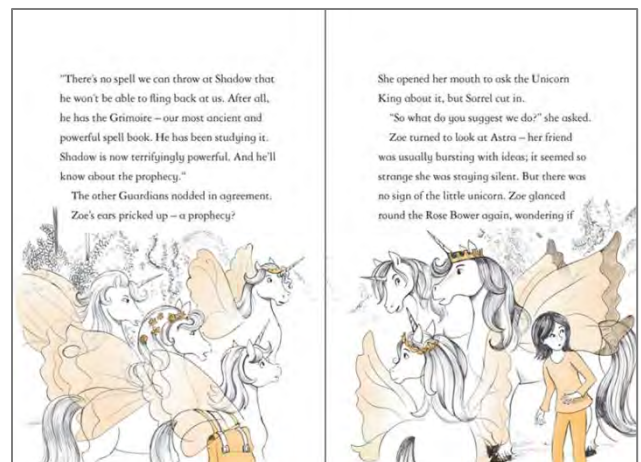

Fairy Unicorns Series

Ages: 7+ Price: $5.99

SAVE $ on Complete Collection – only $24.99

Fairy Unicorns is an original, illustrated fiction with easy reading texts. Designed for newly fluent readers who are ready for longer stories.

Zoe is staying with her Great Aunt May for summer vacation when she discovers a secret world, hidden inside the oak tree at the bottom of the garden - a land full of Fairy Unicorns! But Zoe soon finds out that Unicorn Island is in terrible danger. The trees are dying! Zoe and her new friend, Astra, a beautiful unicorn with silver stars on her coat, must find a way to save the trees, before it's too late... This new series is a stand-alone, but it also follows on from Fairy Ponies.

Extraordinary Lives

Ages: 7-11 Price: $5.99

Focuses on the lives of inspirational historical and modern figures.

- Fully illustrated and full-color throughout.
- Diverse real-life stories to educate, inspire and empower.
- Topics include science, space, history and civil rights.
- Real-life narratives, timelines and facts; childhood to adulthood.

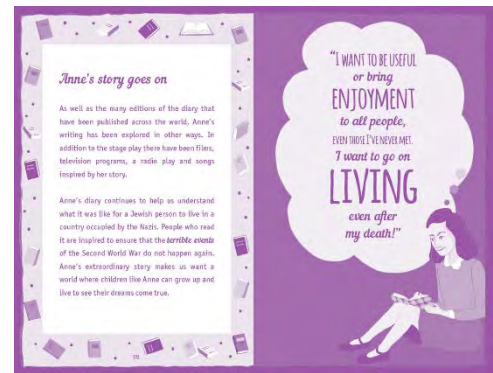

Booklist

The book is invitingly designed, with liberal illustrations breaking up the text to create an airy feel to the page.

PSLA Literature Review

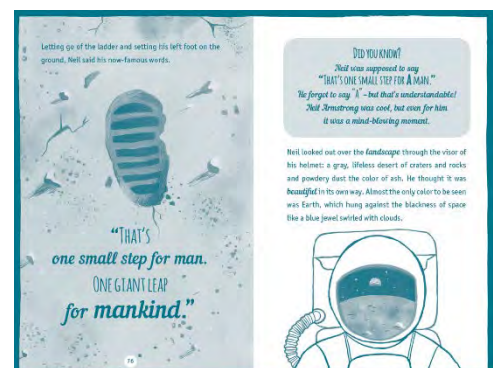

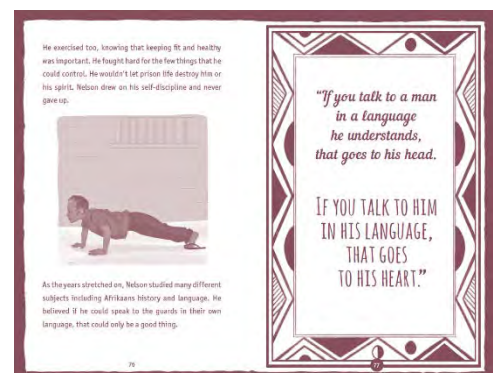

This series would be an excellent addition to an elementary library. ...may just lure in those reluctant readers as well.

Association of Jewish Libraries News and Reviews
This one fills a need not often addresses: a very mild introduction to the person and the time...

School & Library Journal

...celebrates the iconic athlete's grit, determination, generosity, and intelligence in an entertaining, inspiring, and informative manner.

Themes

- Each book features a different, diverse main character.
- Exotic settings: nature and ecology.
- Edge-of-your-seat adventure.
- Perseverance, ingenuity, self-reliance.
- Survival tips and tricks from Bear Grylls himself.

Ages: 7-10 Price: $4.99

SAVE on Complete Collection – only $44.99

You're given a magical compass and suddenly you're no longer at outdoor camp but in an amazing place in the world – with Bear Grylls as your guide!

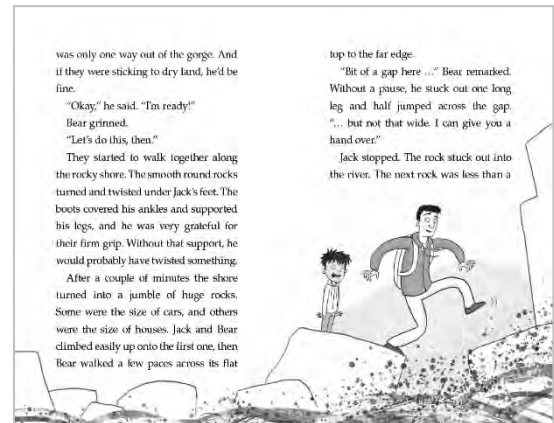

Each book in the Bear Grylls Adventures series follows a different child at an outdoor activity camp. Once they are given the magical compass, they meet Bear in an amazing place and learn new skills and facts they can take back with them to their real life. There is so much information, and so much fun in these inspiring adventures.

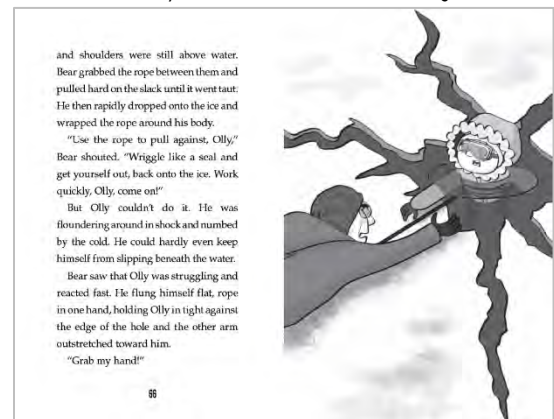

Bear Grylls Adventures: The Earthquake Challenge

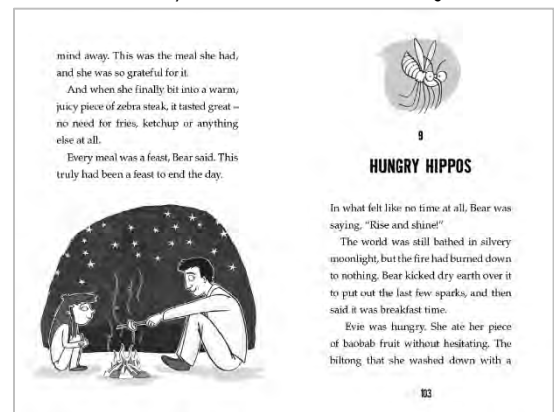

Bear Grylls Adventures: The River Challenge

Bear Grylls Adventures: The Blizzard Challenge

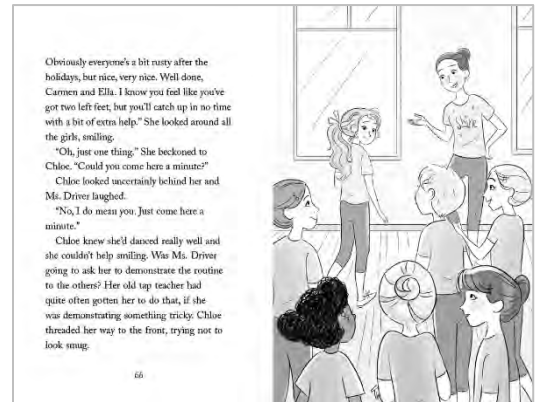

Bear Grylls Adventures: The Safari Challenge

Features

- Dance, drama, and dreams.
- Charming, relatable, well-drawn characters.
- Social issues; friendship.
- Four diverse, distinct characters and situations.

Shine: Chloe Center Stage by Holly Webb

Obviously everyone's a bit rusty after the holidays, but nice, very nice. Well done, Carmen and Ella. I know you feel like you've got two left feet, but you'll catch up in no time with a bit of extra help!" She looked around at the girls, smiling.

"Oh, just one thing," she beckoned to Chloe. "Could you come here a minute?"

Chloe looked uncertainly behind her and Ms. Driver laughed.

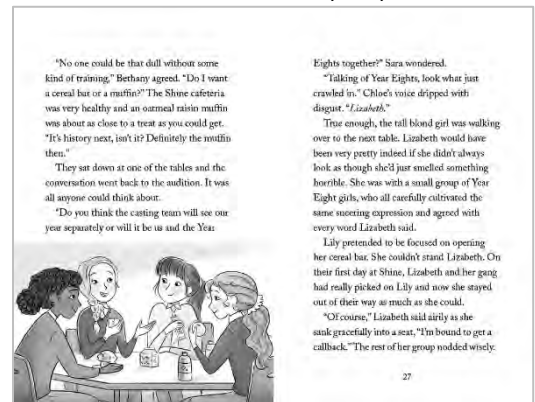

"No, I do mean you. Just come here a minute."

Chloe knew she'd danced really well and she couldn't help smiling. Was Ms. Driver going to ask her to demonstrate the routine to the others? Her old tap teacher had quite often gotten her to do that, if she was demonstrating something tricky. Chloe threaded her way to the front, trying not to look smug.

66

Shine: Sara's Dream Role by Holly Webb

"No one could be that dull without some kind of training," Bethany agreed. "Do I want a cereal bar or a muffin?" The Shine cafeteria was very healthy and an oatmeal raisin muffin was about as close to a treat as you could get. "It's history next, isn't it? Definitely the muffin then."

They sat down at one of the tables and the conversation went back to the audition. It was all anyone could think about.

"Do you think the casting team will see our act separately or will it be us and the Year Eights together?" Sara wondered.

"Talking of Year Eights, look what just crawled in," Chloe's voice dripped with disgust. "Lizabeth."

True enough, the tall blond girl was walking over to the next table. Lizabeth would have been very pretty indeed if she didn't always look as though she'd just smelled something horrible. She was with a small group of Year Eight girls, who all carefully cultivated the same smug expression and agreed with every word Lizabeth said.

Lily pretended to be focused on opening her cereal box. She couldn't stand Lizabeth. On their first day at Shine, Lizabeth and her gang had really picked on Lily and now she stayed out of their way as much as she could.

"Of course," Lizabeth said airily as she sank gracefully into a seat. "I'm bound to get a callback." The rest of her group nodded wisely.

27

Ages: 8-10 Price: $5.99

Join Chloe, Sara, Lily and Bethany at The Shine School for the Performing Arts, where dreams of stardom really can – and do – come true.

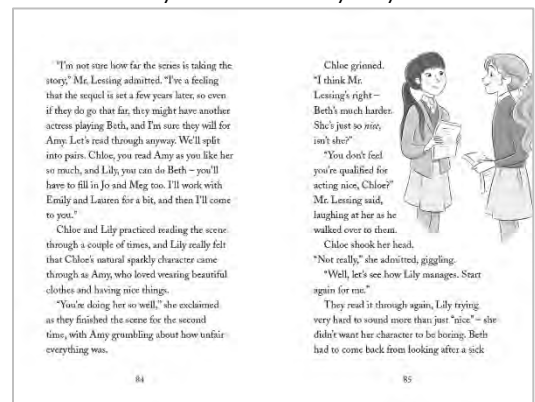

Getting into The Shine School for the Performing Arts is a dream come true for Chloe! When a prank goes wrong though, rumors that she is about to be expelled begin to fly. Can Chloe turn things around before it's too late?

When there's an audition for a professional production of Mary Poppins, Sara is hoping it'll be her big chance. But can she avoid rivalries at school and her parents' concerns at home to secure the role of her dreams?

Lily's sure she only got in to Shine because of her actress mom. Then she finds out about an exciting new TV adaptation of her favorite book, and everything clicks – this is her chance to prove herself! Will she be able to convince everyone else though?

Bethany has been keeping a secret from her best friends: she's a scholarship student; but with homework and a long commute, she's struggling. Will Bethany be able to find her voice and shine in the concert?

Shine: Lily's Secret Audition by Holly Webb

"I'm not sure how far the series is taking the story," Mr. Lessing admitted. "I've a feeling that the sequel is set a few years later, so even if they do go that far, they might have another actress playing Beth, and I'm sure they will for Amy. Let's read through anyway. We'll split into pairs. Chloe, you read Amy as you like her so much, and Lily, you can do Beth – you'll have to fill in for Meg too. I'll work with Emily and Lauren for a bit, and then I'll come to you."

Chloe and Lily practiced reading the scene through a couple of times, and Lily really felt that Chloe's natural sparkly character came through as Amy, who loved wearing beautiful clothes and having nice things.

"You're doing her so well," she exclaimed as they finished the scene for the second time, with Amy grumbling about how unfair everything was.

Chloe grinned.

"I think Mr. Lessing's right – Beth's much harder. She's just so nice, isn't she?"

"You don't feel you're qualified for acting nice, Chloe?"

Mr. Lessing said, laughing at her as he walked over to them.

Chloe shook her head.

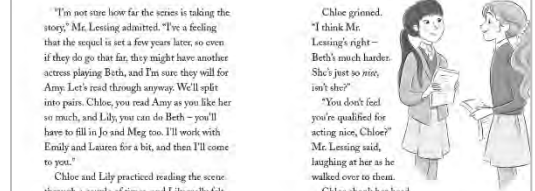

"Not really," she admitted, giggling.

"Well, let's see how Lily manages. Start again for me."

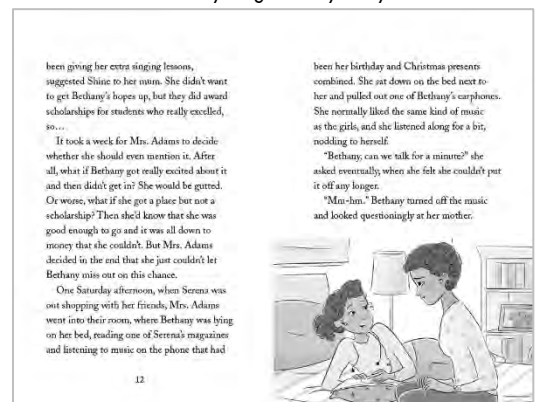

They read it through again, Lily trying very hard to sound more than just "nice" – she didn't want her character to be boring. Beth had to come back from looking after a sick been giving her extra singing lessons, suggested Shine to her mum. She didn't want to get Bethany's hopes up, but they did award scholarships for students who really excelled, so...

84

85

Shine: Bethany Sings Out by Holly Webb

It took a week for Mrs. Adams to decide whether she should even mention it. After all, what if Bethany got really excited about it and then didn't get in? She would be gutted. Or worse, what if she got a place but not a scholarship? Then they'd know that she was good enough to go and it was all down to money that she couldn't. But Mrs. Adams decided in the end that she just couldn't let Bethany miss out on this chance.

One Saturday afternoon, when Serena was out shopping with her friends, Mrs. Adams went into their room, where Bethany was lying on her bed, reading one of Serena's magazines and listening to music on the phone that had been her birthday and Christmas presents combined. She sat down on the bed next to her and pulled out one of Bethany's songbooks. She normally liked the same kind of music as the girls, and she listened along for a bit, nodding to herself.

"Bethany, can we talk for a minute?" she asked eventually, when she felt she couldn't put it off any longer.

"Mum-hm," Bethany turned off the music and looked questioningly at her mother.

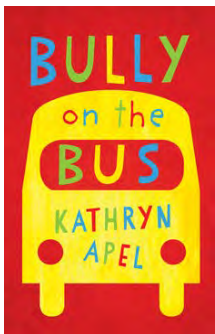

12

Features

- A verse novel
- Brave & thoughtful characters
- Heartwarming ending
- On Pacer's Nat'l Bullying Prevention Center's Book List

Ages: 8+ Price: $6.99

*She's big.
She's smart.
She's mean.
She's the bully on the bus.
She picks on me and
I don't like it.
But I don't know how to make her stop.*

A beautifully crafted verse novel that will surprise and empower.

The bully on the bus taunts seven-year-old Leroy, then silences him with threats of worse to come if he tells. To help him, his teacher introduces him to a book of fairy tales. Hidden within are the clues that Leroy needs to overcome the bully's taunts once and for all.

Kirkus Reviews

"Simple, hopeful, and positive."

School Library Journal

The honesty and rawness of Leroy's emotions expressed throughout each verse will stir compassion in young readers. For readers experiencing or witnessing bullying themselves, it will hopefully inspire and empower.

VERDICT A short yet poignant title on a timely topic; a valuable addition to elementary school and public library collections.

The Pirate Tree

This empowering story offers young readers not only strong characters overcoming an all too common school problem, but also gives them useful suggestions on how they could tame a bully themselves, without getting in trouble.

SWON Libraries CLEAR Reviews

The flowing verse tells the story beautifully. I would recommend this book to any child who has been bullied or knows someone who has been bullied. It would also use it as a read aloud with elementary students to discuss bullying and being kind.

Mom Read It

Told in verse from Leroy's point of view, BULLY ON THE BUS is sensitive, often heartbreaking, and ultimately, hopeful. Leroy's employs self-confidence, bolstered by his family's and teacher's support, and a 'secret weapon' that holds messages – strategies – to distract him from DJ's bullying. There's strong advice for kids enduring their own bullies: "Show the bully you don't care. Tell an adult." The story ends on an optimistic note, and while Leroy's "secret weapon" and support system may not apply to every reader's situation, it is a story that lets kids know they are seen; their stories heard. It's a story that encourages kids to seek help and assures them that someone out there wants to listen and wants to help.

Literacy Daily, "Celebrating Poetry"

Reading this short chapter book in verse is a good opener for discussion of the issue of bullying.

Kirkus Reviews

Even though grade schooler Leroy loves his teacher and his fellow Superkids in Mrs. Wilson's classroom, he dreads the trip to and from school for one particular reason—DJ. A high schooler who changes the color of her hair almost as frequently as her mood, DJ finds respite from her own frustrating life by tormenting Leroy. Insults, mockery, and poking are only the start, and there's little that older sister Ruby, who's only in grade five, can do to help. When the cupcake Leroy has made for his teacher disappears into DJ's mouth, he is crushed. His parents and teacher notice a change in his demeanor, but Leroy feels nervous confiding in them. When he does, they hatch a plan. Leroy has a list of things he can do to combat DJ, including ignoring her, sitting in a seat close to the bus driver, and speaking confidently. But it's his secret weapon, a storybook that distracts him and interests DJ, that finally encourages peace on the bus. Leroy learns the important lesson of show and tell: "Show the bully you don't care. / Tell an adult." Simply written in verse, this is a story many children will find familiar. An optimistic ending might be just the encouragement most kids need, but it may be a little improbable for some readers. Set in Australia, the book assumes a white default.

Features

- High-voltage adventure; laughs on every page
- Diverse and inclusive
- Relatable family and friendship dynamics

Ages: 8+

Price: $6.99

It's high time we had a new girl superhero to root for in this middle grade space - and Lightning Girl has all the classic tensions of superhero versus supervillain stories, together with realistic family and friendship dynamics, and laughs on every page.

Always in the Middle

"This should appeal to both girls and boys who enjoy a bit of magic and a fun premise."

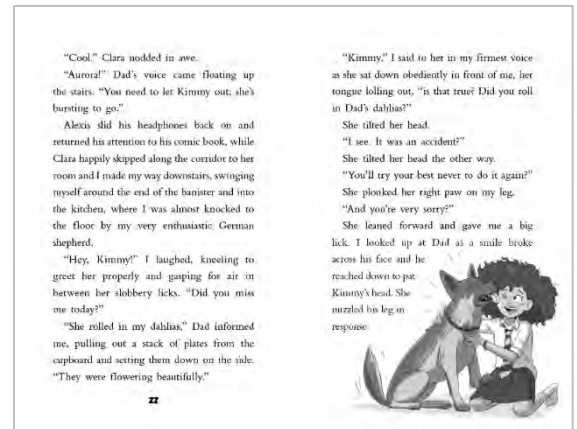

Charlotte's Library

These are fun, fast reads, with a bi-racial, big-haired heroine who is still very much a kid. Sure she has powers, but she doesn't have a lot of confidence in herself. Although not everyone has problems controlling their lightning powers, many of us can relate to her worries... In short, these should go down very easily indeed for younger middle school readers.

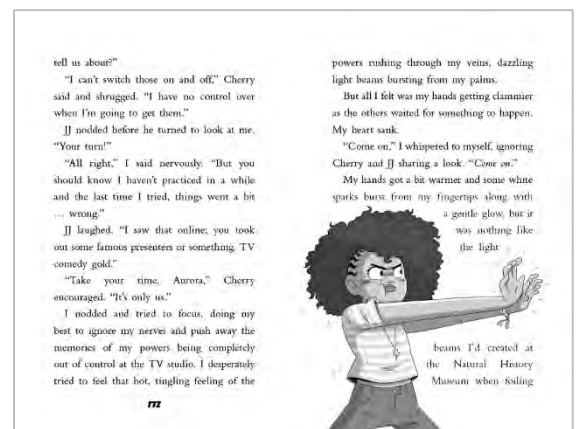

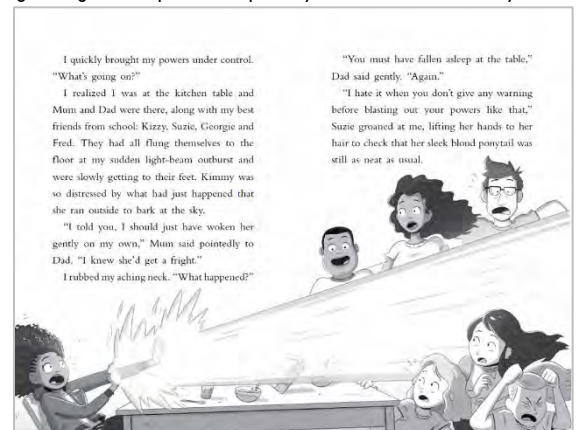

Always in the Middle

The fast pace along with the first person narration by the endearing Aurora Beam made for a winning combination. ... Fun, black and white illustrations are scattered throughout the chapters. The story shines in more ways than one and it would also make for a great read aloud.

Lightening Girl by Alesha Dixon with Katy Birchall

Lightening Girl: Superhero Squad by Alesha Dixon with Katy Birchall

Themes

- Anxiety
- OCD
- Friendship
- Empathy

Ages: 8-12 Price: $5.99

Notable Features

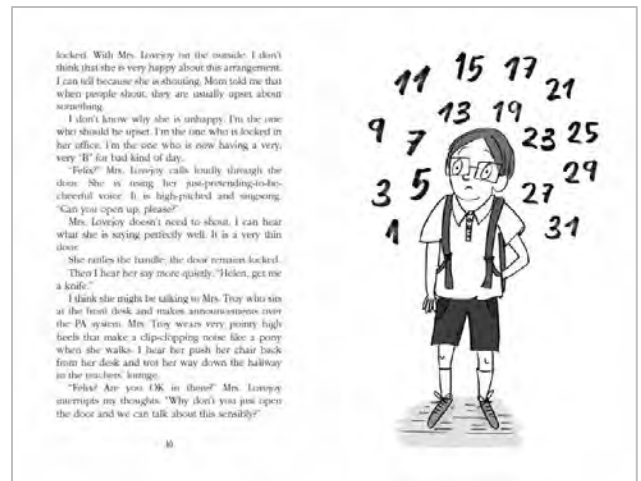

- Hopeful insight on overcoming OCD and anxiety issues.
- Great classroom read – very funny.

Eleven-year-old Felix Twain's life revolves around the number two. He skips every second step when he takes the stairs, taps door handles twice and positions objects in pairs. The problem has become so bad that Felix is on the verge of being expelled from school because the principal has had enough of trying to run the school around his very specific rules.

Then Charlie Pye arrives and turns Felix's world upside down. She's grown up with very few rules. She eats cereal for lunch, calls a boat home, and has a very loose interpretation of school uniform. The question is, can Felix ever learn to be wrong when he is so obsessed with being right?

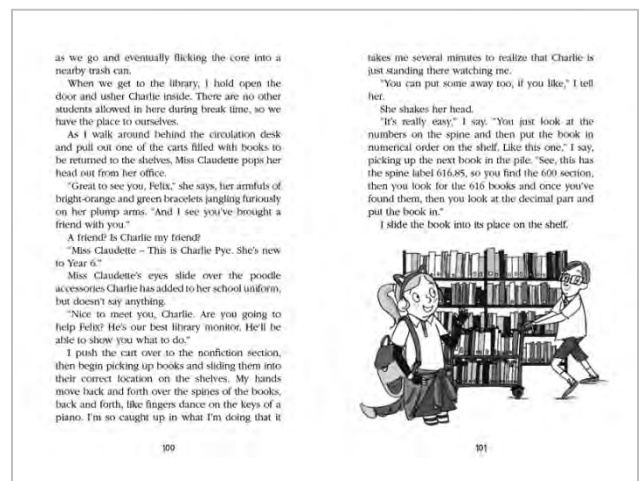

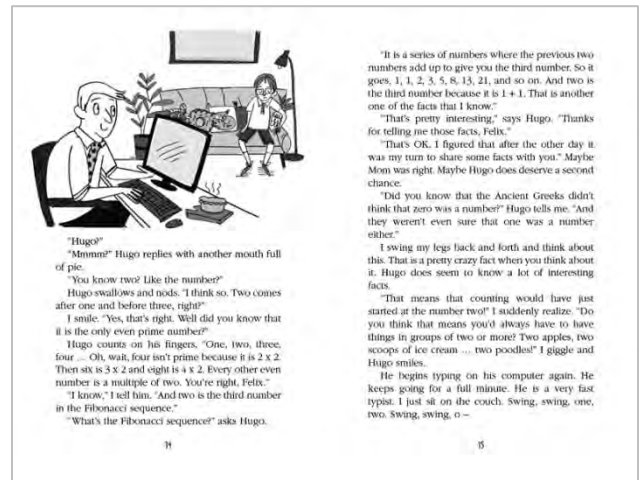

School Library Journal This would be a good introduction for upper elementary students to mental health issues and will appeal to students who like Jeff Kinney's "Diary of a Wimpy Kid" and Rachel Renée Russell's "Dork Diaries."

Always in the Middle ...an adventure of discovery and understanding, especially for the main character. He has Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD). ... Narrated by Felix, the tale supplies readers with empathy for his condition. This would make a fantastic read-aloud in the classroom or at home. A beautiful story to enjoy and share.

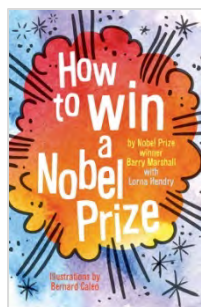

School Library Journal

Readers gain an understanding of anxiety and OCD disorders. The illustrations could be tempting to some reluctant readers. ... a good introduction for upper elementary students to mental health issues...

Themes

- Science
- Nobel Prizes
- Women in Science

Ages: 8+ Price: $6.99

Notable Features

- Learn the secrets behind some of the most important scientific discoveries.
- Simple explanations and demonstrations bring science to life.
- Author Dr. Barry Marshall won the 2005 Nobel Prize for Medicine.

When Mary stumbles on a secret meeting of Nobel Prize winners, Dr. Barry Marshall agrees to travel with her through time to learn the secrets behind some of the most fascinating and important scientific discoveries. They talk time and space with Albert Einstein, radiation with Marie Curie, DNA with Crick, Watson, and Wilkins – and more! Fun science experiments included!

[This book] is such a unique way of introducing famous scientist and their work! The experiments at the end of each chapter are fun, cool, approachable and relevant to each chapter.

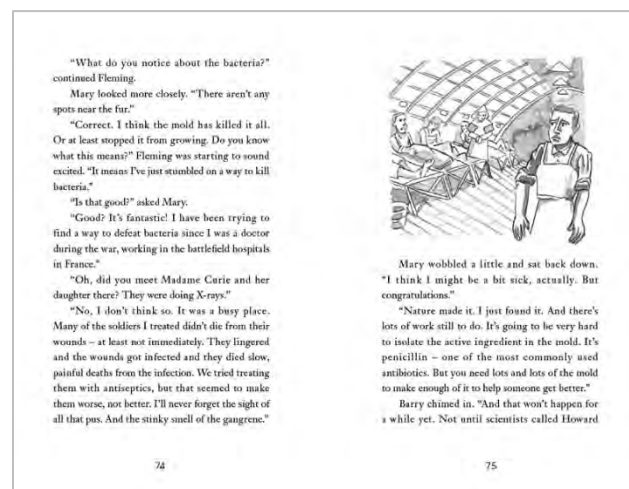

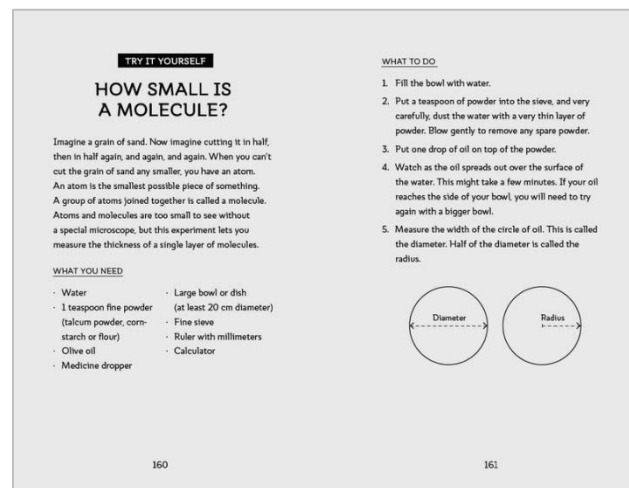

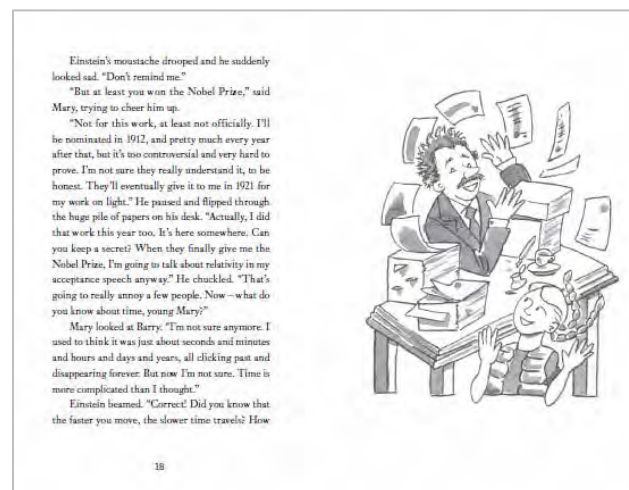

It was so much fun "meeting" [scientists] in a fictitious storyline that presents facts in a fun, relatable manner which lends to very easy retention! Each scientist ends their meeting with the main character, Mary (who has time traveled to meet them), by giving her a piece of advice on how to win a Nobel prize - each piece of advice doubles as a valuable and applicable life lesson. I really can't recommend this book enough!

Web Review by a customer with a B.S. in Molecular, Cell and Developmental Biology

Booklist "An entertaining introduction to groundbreaking scientists that will inspire students to learn more."

Books+Publishing

This book is a fun and fast-paced look at science and scientists... highly recommended for budding scientists of upper-primary age.

Themes

- Animal Knowledge – habitats, feeding, endangered species.
- Positive family relationships.
- Moving, New Beginnings, Bullying
- Appeals to both boys and girls.

Ages: 8+ | Pages: 160-176 | Price: $5.99

Series: Tanglewood Animal Park

Every day, Zoe helps take care of the animals at Tanglewood Animal Park. She splashes with penguins, feeds the lemurs, and so much more!

Paradise Wildlife Park

Perfect for animal lovers.

Minerva Reads

What's wonderful is the amount of animal knowledge (such as feeding, habitats, endangered species etc) deposited throughout the book, either as part of the story or as dialogue between the characters, so that for the young reader they can absorb the animal information at the same time as reading...

Pam Norfolk, Lancashire Post

Young animal lovers are trumpeting with excitement... Chuck Groenink and Jean Claude's enchanting illustrations add the extra "aah" factor to this gorgeous adventure series which combines exciting adventures with real-life facts about wild creatures and is a guaranteed winner with animal lovers of every age.

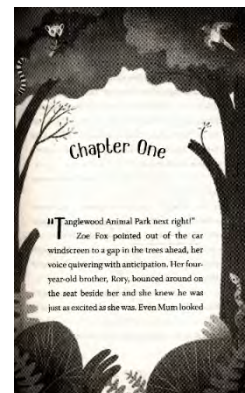

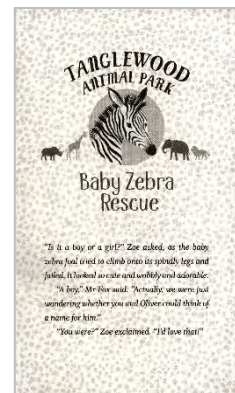

Mia- Age 9

I thought this book was amazing! I enjoyed going on adventures with Zoe & Oliver. It does give you some fun animal facts and I think this series is great for boys and girls. It was so descriptive I felt sometimes like I was in the book!

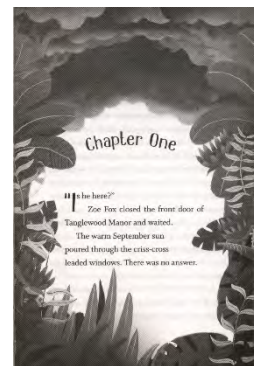

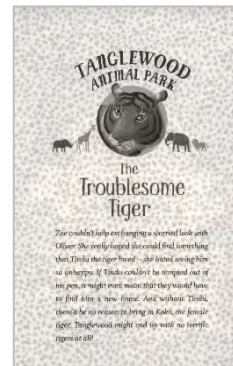

Her parent: My daughter loved this book...

As for Oliver being a bit of a bully, my daughter understands people go through some tough times in life and just need a friend. Zoe becomes that friend for Oliver.

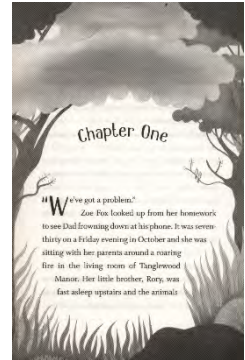

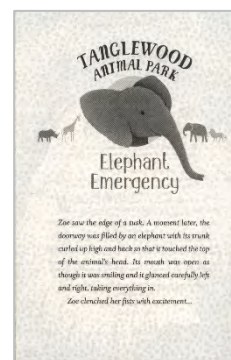

Tanglewood Park: Baby Zebra Rescue (bk 1)

Tanglewood Park: The Troublesome Tiger (bk 2)

Tanglewood Park: Elephant Emergency (bk 3)

Themes

- Courageous young hero.
- Maximum thrills; nonstop action.
- Exotic settings: nature and ecology.
- Edge-of-your-seat adventure.
- Perseverance, ingenuity, self-reliance.

Ages: 8-12 Price: $5.99

SAVE on Complete Collection – only $35.99

Action has a new hero - Sam Fox!

With a talent for attracting danger, Sam Fox is an expert at getting himself into (and out of) the most extreme situations. This series has a strong appeal with a courageous young hero and exotic settings and has non-stop action and short chapters which will engage reluctant readers.

This high-action series keeps kids reading!

The pace of all the Extreme Adventures novels keeps readers gripped from the first page to the last. Sam is bounced so quickly from one adventure to another, readers will hardly have time to breathe.

The Lorgnette - Heart of Texas Reviews

Readers will love to see what happens to Sam next.

Reading Review

The is action to the maximum!

Book Trends

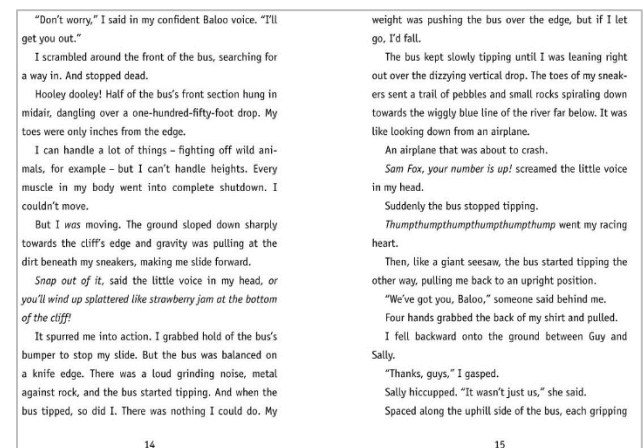

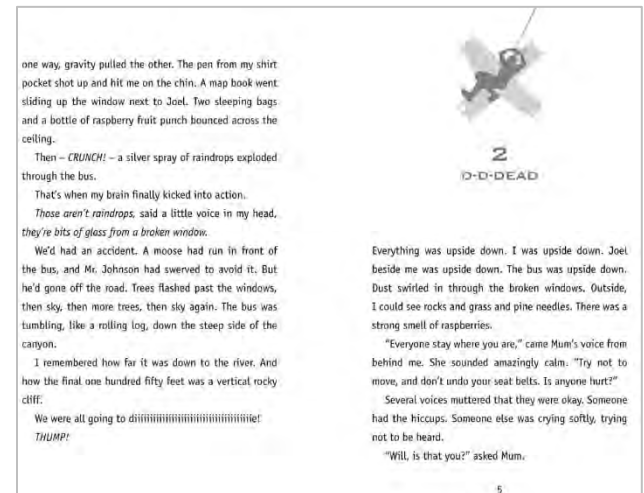

[Extreme Adventures: Man-Eater]

...a fantastic book that anyone would enjoy reading.

San Francisco Book Review

...sure to capture audiences and not disappoint.

Extreme Adventures: Grizzly Trap

Features

- Coded chapter headings to decipher, maps, case file notes.
- Emphasis on all kinds of skills: codebreaking, problem solving, engineering, athletic, and more.
- Detailed international settings complete with maps, sports, science.
- Appealing to both boys and girls.

Ages: 8-12 | Pages: 336-368 | Price: $5.99

What would you do if you woke up in a strange place? If your whole life changed in the blink of an eye and you had no idea what was going on? Twins Kensy and Max Grey's lives are turned upside down when they are whisked off to London, and discover their parents are missing. As the situation unfolds, so many things don't add up: their strange new school, the bizarre grannies on their street, the coded messages they keep finding and the feeling that, all around them, adults are keeping secrets ...

An action-packed spy adventure series!

A witty and fast moving, classic spy adventure w/a contemporary twist. Enjoy a richly created world, fantastic dialogue and well-developed, multigenerational characters – reflecting strong family relationships.

Always in the Middle

A fun, engaging start and the endearing Kensy and Max will keep you in good company.

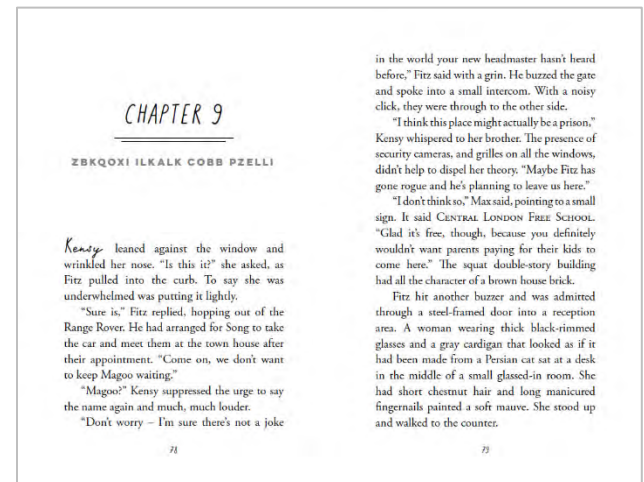

Meridian Magazine Newton's Book News: Fiction Books to Enjoy as the Weather Gets Colder

This delightful mystery will keep you reading to the very end.

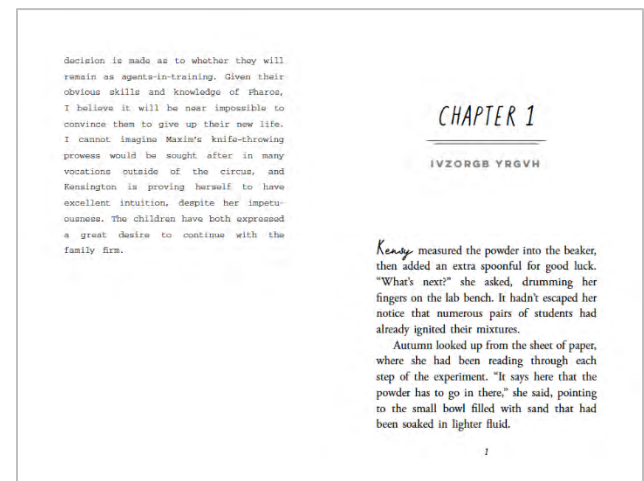

Books YA Love

[A]n exciting series that take Kensy and Max around the world as they search for their parents and keep one step ahead of the bad guys!

Kensy and Max: Breaking News by Jacqueline Harvey

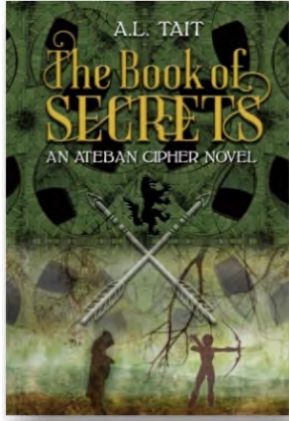

Kensy and Max: Breaking News by Jacqueline Harvey

Themes

- Fantasy
- Adventure
- Mystery
- Friendship with both boys/girls

Ages: 9-14 | Pages: 256 | Price: $5.99

An orphan in exile. A band of rebel girls. A prince whose throne has been stolen. Come on a journey full of danger, intrigue, adventure and incredible secrets in The Ateban Cipher duology.

Forced to flee his home to uncover the secrets hidden in a coded book, sheltered orphan Gabe discovers a world of danger, intrigue, adventure and unexpected friendship. When a dying man hands him a coded manuscript, Gabe is hurled into a quest that takes him beyond his monastery home and into a world of danger, political intrigue and adventure. Gabe learns that survival must be earned and that some of life's biggest lessons are not found in books ... and that the biggest secret of all may be his own.

Booklist - "...a fast-paced adventure brimming with mystery and complex navigations of loyalty and morality."

American Library Association, Booklist Online

... a fast-paced adventure brimming with mystery and complex navigations of loyalty and morality.

Barb Hopkins

This book is so much fun! ... It's packed with action, adventure, danger, and an intriguing mystery ... the story flows effortlessly with a comfortable balance of action, exposition, and dialogue. I'd recommend The Book of Secrets for mid-grade readers through teens, but adults will enjoy this adventure as well.

Susan Stephenson, The Book Chook

Both novels are action-packed, with problems to solve, humour to enjoy and heroes to admire. I loved that the protagonists are such an interesting and diverse bunch.

Sarah Wallace, Kids' Book Review

This is a riveting read that hooks you in from the first page and has you connecting immediately with the protagonist and his predicament. It is the first book in AL Tait's new Ateban Cipher series and certainly leaves you hanging, wanting desperately to know if Gabe and his new friends will manage the journey to the book's ultimate destination and learn its secrets. My 10 year old loved this and can't wait to read number two!

Trish Buckley, Children's Books Daily

This exciting fantasy novel aimed at the 9 to 12 age group will satisfy readers, and leave them wanting more. Its fast-paced plot balances a sensitive thoughtful narrator with his newly-found-rescuers-turned-friends so that by the time they all figure out the codes and clues, readers have been entertained and engaged... Without giving anything away, I do want to applaud some of the terrific representatives of characters presented here. It invites young people to consider the consequences of class structure, the damage of gender stereotypes, and the value of kindness and loyalty. Tait is deft and assured, and her ability to include these issues without ruining the story is marvelous.

Liz Ledden, Buzz Words magazine

Tait builds a believable and evocative middle ages world, rich in historical detail – think dungeons, danger, archery and royal double-crossings. The introduction of Eddie to the cast of characters around the halfway mark elevates the stakes even more. High on energy, The Book of Secrets is a compelling read with twists and turns to keep you guessing, and sets up a whole new exciting adventure for the next installment.

Themes

- Fantasy
- Showcases cartography, maps and exploration
- Loyalty – Class
- Mystery, Murder, Mayhem

Ages: 9-14 | Pages: 240 | Price: $5.99

Adventure and danger lie just off the edge of the map in this swashbuckling trilogy!

The Mapmaker Chronicles are one-part fantasy, one-part quest, one-part high-seas action. Filled with strong, feisty characters who learn resilience, perseverance and the importance of friendship, each book transports readers to faraway lands.

Quinn's older brothers may long for adventure, but he is content with his quiet life on the farm. Destiny, however, has other plans.

The king is determined to create the first map of the world and has scoured the kingdom for boys who could become mapmakers. When Quinn is chosen for the king's training school, he's amazed - but that is nothing compared to his shock when he is selected as one of the three mapmakers and finds himself on board a ship, competing for the big prize.

So begins Quinn's reluctant journey deep into the unknown, with only his photographic memory and skills learned on the farm to help him. He's on a ship captained by a slave, with a stowaway girl on board – and a mysterious sea monster that seems to be following them. Hot on their trail are the other competitors for the king's prize, who will stop at nothing to win.

Children's Books Daily

Stories as vivid and utterly engaging as The Mapmaker Chronicles are rare.

Mom-Spot

Your young reader will love the mystery, monsters murder and mayhem that appeals equally to girls and boys.

This Kid Reviews Books

I really liked this entire series. Five out of five bookworms all-around! Yay!

RACE TO THE END OF THE WORLD

- Shortlisted: Readings Children's Book Prize 2015, 2016 YABBA Awards, 2016 KOALA Awards, 2016 KROC Awards, 2017 WAYRBA Awards
- Notable Book: CBCA Book Of The Year 2015
- Named: Readings Top 10 Middle Fiction Books 2014

Barb Hopkins Blog

...a wonderful tale of adventure ... heroes to cheer, bad guys to dislike, and just the right balance of fantasy and reality. ... This book totally goes into my pile of books-I-will-read again.

PRISONER OF THE BLACK HAWK

- Shortlisted: 2015 Aurealis Awards
- Named: Readings Top 10 Middle Fiction Books 2015

Barb Hopkins Blog

...a delightful combination of action, whimsy, and moments that made me thoughtful.

Barb Hopkins Blog

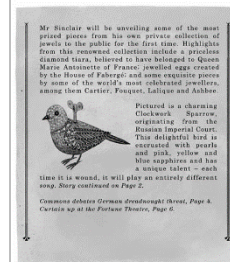

Breath of the Dragon

Like any good adventure story, author A.L. Tait gives readers exciting action sequences, exotic lands, priceless treasure, and heart-stopping heroics by the characters we've grown to love since first introduced in book one: Race to the End of the World. ... Overall, I heartily recommended Breath of the Dragon and the entire Mapmaker Chronicles by A.L. Tait.

Themes

- Adult appeal
- Edwardian England setting
- Dramatic, page-turning action and adventure
- Strong female characters

The Mystery of the Clockwork Sparrow by Katherine Woodfine

"Fancy that," said George admiringly. "And to think that all that's going to be coming through here this very morning, jewels that have belonged to queens and the like."

"Look at the picture," said Billy, and they bent over the paper to squint at the blurry photographs.

"Don't look much like any sparrow I've ever seen," said George, contemplating it. "A different time every time, eh? Now however do you reckon they get it to do that?"

At that moment, a cart loaded with boxes of merchandise lumbered into the stable yard. "Shake a leg, George!" called a voice from behind them. "The gaffer wants this lot unloaded sharpish."

George winked at Billy and then heaved himself to his feet. "Come on, pal," he said. "Let's get on with this and then we'll finish reading later on."

Saying that was all very well, but Billy found it was difficult to concentrate on boxes and deliveries. He kept picturing immense diamonds glinting in the dark tunnels of an Indian mine. Then there was Marie Antoinette's tiara. How had the Captain come to own it? He imagined a grand Paris auction house, or a furtive transaction with a cloaked stranger in a foreign tavern. Busy with these speculations, it seemed no time at all before the boxes were unloaded, and then two shiny black motor cars were pulling into the yard, each driven by a man in white gloves. George nodded to Billy, who stood staring, fascinated by the thought of the priceless treasures that must be within.

But then Uncle Sid strode up. "No hanging about, if you please. This isn't a job for the likes of you. Hop it. Find yourself something useful to do."

The Mystery of the Jeweled Moth by Katherine Woodfine

Sophie grinned to herself. She knew exactly who the birthday card was from. During their adventures, Sophie and her friends had had to decipher some mysterious coded messages, and ever since then, Lil had thought it was great fun to write the others notes in code. Sophie frowned and picked up a pencil, trying to work out this one, determined not to let Lil get the better of her. After a few unsuccessful tries, she cracked in the secret was to read every other letter, starting with the first – and when she came to the end, to start again with the letters she had missed.

A birthday card. The day that had stretched ahead of her just like any other suddenly seemed bright and festive. She felt altogether more cheerful as she glanced down at the second envelope – perhaps Billy had sent her a birthday greeting too?

But the second envelope did not look in the least like something Billy might have sent. The envelope was thick ivory paper, the address written in violet ink in an elegant but unfamiliar hand:

How curious! It was addressed to both her and Lil. She frowned for a moment, trying to think who on earth could possibly be writing a note to both of them. But there was no time to wonder – another customer was hurrying towards her. Hastily, she stuffed both envelopes into the pocket of her frock. "May I help you, madam?" she asked.

The Mystery of the Painted Dragon by Katherine Woodfine and had often met her after the store had closed to discuss whatever mystery they were solving. Billy had even taken to referring to it as "Detective HQ".

In the past weeks though, those gatherings had become rather less regular. The others always seemed to be so busy, Sophie thought now. Lil was occupied with her new play. Miss Arwood kept Billy busy in the office, and even Joe was interested in life at the stable yard. More than once, Sophie had found herself spending her breaks here alone, with only the day's newspapers for company.

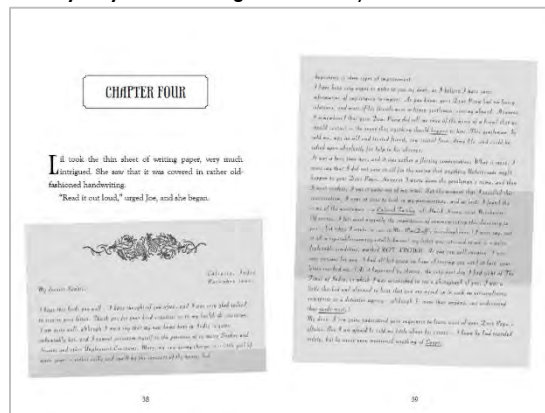

But today was different – they were all together again, crumpling apples and pointing around a bag of toffees that Sophie had brought with some of her hard-earned savings from Miss Long. Sophie felt delighted to see the others. It was quite like old times.

"The Living Paintings are Mr. Sinclair's latest big idea," explained Lil now. "A sort of stunt to help advertise the exhibition. Claudine is going to recreate a series of famous paintings in the store windows, and we – the mannequins – are going to pose there, just as if we were the people in the paintings."

"I thought you weren't working as a mannequin very much now, because of the play," said Billy in surprise.

"I'm not really, but I couldn't resist it. It sounds like such splendid fun – and Mr. Meunier at the theatre thinks it might be good publicity too. I'm to be a painting

The Mystery of the Midnight Peacock by Katherine Woodfine

Ages: 11+ | Pages: 320-352 | Price: $6.99

It's Nancy Drew with a PBS twist, and readers of all ages will adore the cast of exceptionally likeable characters.

Combining mystery, adventure and friendship with a sumptuous Edwardian setting, The Mystery of the Clockwork Sparrow is an absolute joy of a book, transporting the reader to a world of heady glamour offset by a murky criminal underground.

You are cordially invited to attend the Grand Opening of Sinclair's department store! Enter a world of bonbons, hats, perfumes and mysteries around every corner.

Tremble as the most dastardly criminals in London enact their wicked plans! Gasp as our bold heroines, Miss Sophie Taylor and Miss Lilian Rose, break codes, devour iced buns and vow to bring the villains to justice . . .

A splendid adventure awaits you.

School Library Journal

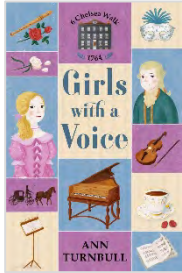

"A truly exciting novel that will appeal to lovers of historical fiction as well as adventure and detective stories.

Kirkus Reviews

This old-fashioned whodunit is thoroughly satisfying to solve along with our heroes... Jolly good fun.

2-in-1 Book

Ages: 11+ | Pages: 331 | Price: $8.99

Girls with a Voice

Year 1764

(previously published as "Historical House: Mary Ann and Miss Mozart")

Mary Ann's greatest wish is to become an opera singer, and she's thrilled when the famous child prodigy Mozart comes to perform in Chelsea. But through a sudden twist of fate, Mary Ann is told that she must leave her Boarding School for Young Ladies, and her singing dreams are shattered. Distraught, she comes up with a plan to stay at school, oblivious to the danger it will put her in.

Girls with Courage

Year 1857

(previously published as "Historical House: Lizzie's Wish")

Lizzie loves plants, and her biggest wish is to be a gardener, a bold choice for a

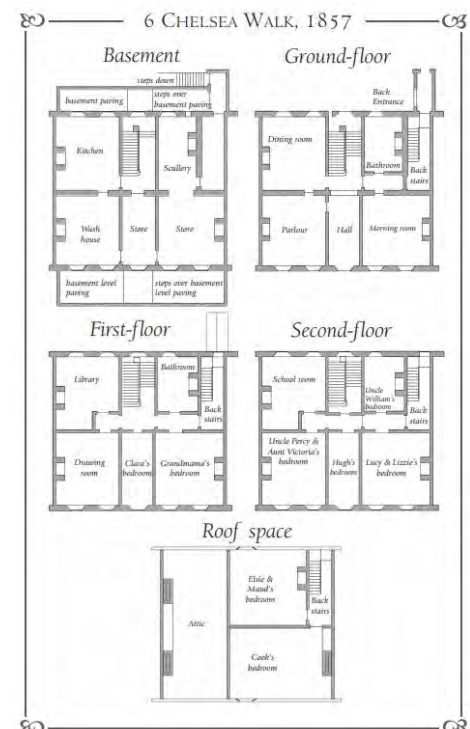

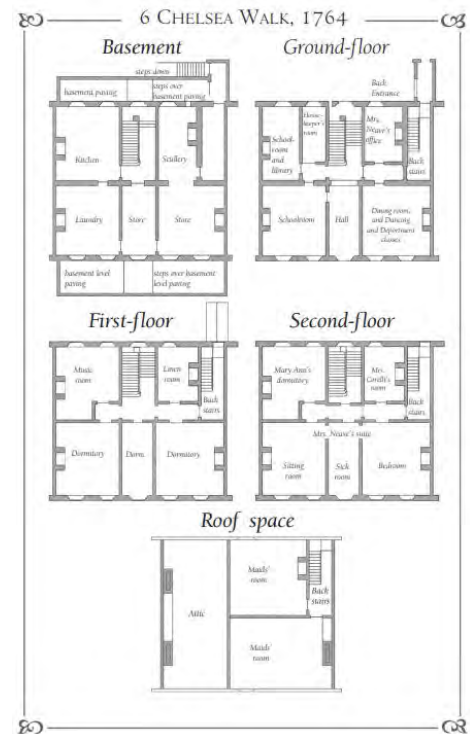

Victorian girl. When her strict stepfather sends her to stay with relatives in London, Lizzie misses her country garden and struggles with her new life of stiff manners and formal pastimes. Lizzie lives for the daily letters from her mother, until suddenly, the letters stop. Can Lizzie find the courage to stand up to her stepfather, & follow her dreams?

Each book includes a house plan for that current era to add interest & allowing readers to see how a house changes over times.

The premise of Usborne's Historical House series is a delightful one: a single house in Chelsea forms the backdrop for a set of stories spanning 200 years.

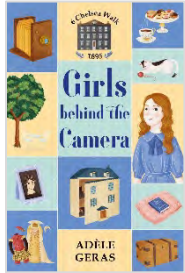

These are engaging novels, immaculately researched and quietly informative. They can be read in any order; those who read them all will be thrilled by the occasional links that draw characters together across generations.

Kate Agnew, Education Guardian

2-in-1 Book

Ages: 11+ | Pages: 381 | Price: $8.99

Girls behind the Camera

Year 1890s

(previously published as
"Historical House: Mary Ann and Miss Mozart")

Mary Ann's greatest wish is to become an opera singer, and she's thrilled when the famous child prodigy Mozart comes to perform in Chelsea. But through a sudden twist of fate, Mary Ann is told that she must leave her Boarding School for Young Ladies, and her singing dreams are shattered. Distraught, she comes up with a plan to stay at school, oblivious to the danger it will put her in.

Girls for the Vote

Year 1914

(previously published as
"Historical House: Polly's March")

Polly longs to become an explorer. But in 1914, women's rights and choices are limited – something twelve-year-old Polly learns when she befriends her new neighbors: two suffragettes, fighting for women's rights to vote. Polly's parents are appalled, but Polly is intrigued. And the more she thinks about their cause, the more determined she becomes to join the suffragettes' protest march. But will Polly dare to defy her parents and do what she thinks is right?

Each book includes a house plan for that current era to add interest & allowing readers to see how a house changes over times. A link is included to print it off.

A gripping story of courage, friendship and speaking up during a time of change, from Carnegie-shortlisted author, Linda Newberry.

"short and accessible, while at the same time fast-paced and fact-packed."

Sinead O'Hart, author of The Eye of the North

2-in-1 Book

Ages: 11+ | Pages: 381 | Price: $8.99

Girls at War

Year 1941

(previously published as
"Historical House: Josie Under Fire")

When Josie goes to stay with her cousin Edith, she's glad to be starting a new life away from the shame that has haunted her family since her brother chose not to fight in the war. But Edith's friends keep teasing a shy classmate, and when the bullying goes too far Josie faces a dilemma: if she takes a stand, will Edith tell everyone her secret?

A deeply moving account of one girl's quiet courage amidst the terror of the Blitz during the 2nd WW.

Girls on the Up

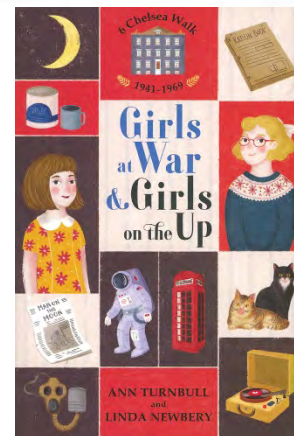

Year 1969

(previously published as
"Historical House: Andie's Moon")

Andie dreams of becoming an artist. Her best paintings are inspired by the moon, and she's excited to watch the first moon landing. She loves staying in Chelsea, with its fashion, music and art galleries. There's even a real artist living in the flat downstairs. But does Andie dare to show him her work – or might it shatter her dreams?

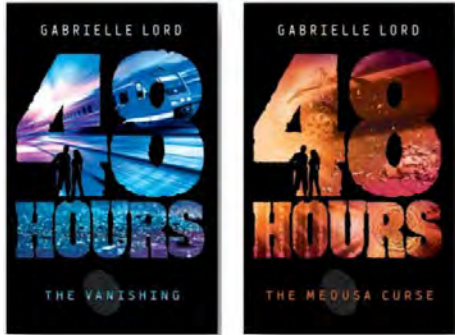

...three highly acclaimed writers explore the life of a London house and its inhabitants from 1764 to 1969. There are three main focal points in the texts: the house's physical changes through the years, meticulous and informative details about domestic life, ethos and culture and, finally, the developing roles and expectations of women at critical periods in history. Crucially, the writers have maintained authorial independence, giving them a clarity of voice and diversity of style, but the books are linked by the motif of the walnut tree and by the challenges which their female protagonists have to face.

Books for Keeps

Themes

- Science – CSI Tools
- Mystery – Suspense
- Friendship

Ages: 12+ | Pages: 240 | Price: $6.99

One kidnapping. One cold case.
Two amateur investigators.
Only 48 hours to solve the crime...

Jazz's best friend, Anika, has been kidnapped! She can't call the cops, so Jazz forges a shaky truce with her brilliant nemesis, Phoenix, to help her investigate. Together, they uncover clues and crime-scene evidence. Sneaking into a forensic lab, they test DNA, fingerprints and more, to piece the clues together. Do the results lead to a twenty-year-old murder case?

In a race against time, Jazz and Phoenix only have 48 HOURS to collect the evidence, profile the kidnapper and find their schoolmate's location, or Anika will die. The clock is ticking...

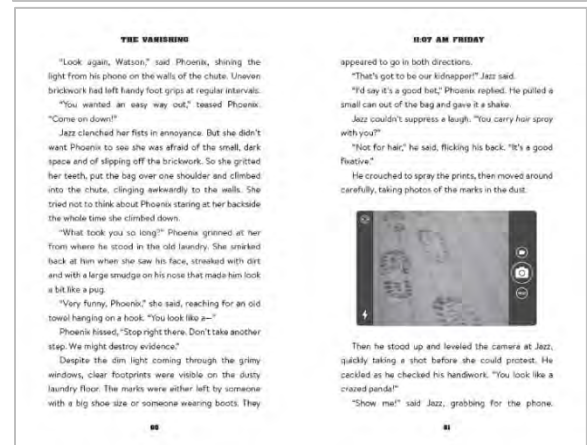

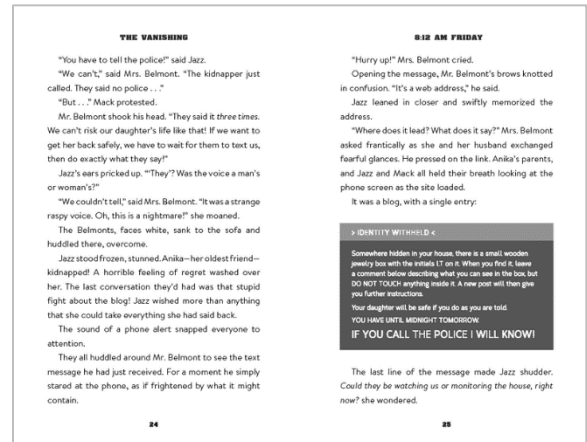

Vicious thieves smash a cursed Medusa statue and steal the supercomputer Sapphire in a terrifying museum raid. Jazz and Phoenix are first on the scene and they soon find themselves in the midst of a dangerous mystery.

Their friend, museum owner Dr. Zhang, is the prime suspect, but he is nowhere to be found. Determined to prove him innocent and find Sapphire, Jazz and Phoenix have just 48 HOURS to follow the trail of evidence before it goes cold. Will the amateur investigators discover that a centuries-old curse has struck again, or is something even more sinister going on? The clock is ticking...

Aussie Reviews

48 Hours' is the first in a new series from Gabrielle Lord... Jazz and Phoenix are the crime-solving duo with complementary skills, though at first they struggle to work cohesively. As well as chasing clues, they must evade parents who are 1. worried about them, 2. cross with them for hacking 3. distressed because their daughter is missing. This is a fast-paced action thriller for crime aficionados in mid- to upper-primary years.

48 HOURS: The Vanishing by Gabrielle Lord

48 HOURS: The Medusa Curse by Gabrielle Lord

